

QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION POLICY

"Anvalda" is a metal processing company located in Lithuania. The company's main advantages are individual design, experience and product quality, as well as competitive prices. Anvalda has execution class 2 according to EN 1090-2:2008+A1:2011, which proves that production quality is taken seriously. Anvalda uses only certified materials that ensure the best product quality and long service life of our products.

The main goals of the company are: professionalism, quality and reliability. Also, the company aims to ensure that the production carried out cause the smallest possible negative impact on the environment.

In order to achieve the set goals, the company:

- ensures that the policy of the integrated management system in accordance with the requirements of the ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 standards is understood, implemented, supervised and suitable for the organization's purpose, strategic direction and set goals of the integrated management system;
- undertakes to ensure continuous improvement of the integrated management system in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 standards and increasing its effectiveness;
- strives to meet and exceed customer requirements so that products are of the highest quality;
- strives to meet and fulfill assumed obligations, legal obligations and meet the requirements of interested parties;
- undertakes to protect the environment, including pollution prevention, and its resources to the extent possible;
- seeks to ensure that activities are managed based on the established strategic direction and efforts are made to minimize any negative impact on the environment.

CEO Valdas Sadzevičius
2023 m. March

